0 of 0 review helpful Amazing Creatures By Marge B As an animal lover i really enjoyed this book It does bring to light the ever growing and out of control problem of the exotic animal trade I knew this has always been a problem but had to idea to what extent It is wonderful to see that there are sanctuaries that care about and for all these magnificent creatures However we need more sanctuaries and also more needs Nestled in the woods near Center Point Indiana The Exotic Feline Rescue Center houses more than 160 big cats ranging from lions tigers leopards and pumas to bobcats and more obscure breeds like the caracal serval ocelot and lynx But all of the cats at EFRC have one thing in common they are predators that have suffered abuse and escaped extermination because of EFRC s efforts Through astonishing images and compelling text Stephen D McCloud tells e A stunning collection of photographs that beautifully illustrates therefuge and the large felines that call it home Bloomington Herald Times April21 2006
