0 of 0 review helpful Just the thing for a rockhound By Ada I bought this book to put together a simple geology science unit You could make an entire science unit using this book alone The pictures are just amazing and the website that the book directs you to is just a huge plus In the website you plug in a keyword and get everything from animations that demonstrate concepts to geology games and each keyword contains a A book and a website in one

From rocks that have been flung from erupting volcanoes and stalactites as old as the dinosaurs to spectacular crystal formations and precious nuggets of gold and platinum explore the history of our planet Read about how the rocks beneath your feet were formed and then go online with Google to discover more All the websites are safe and appropriate and have been specially selected to give you all the latest and best information Perfect fo
